This is the beginning of the final chapter of a history begun four years ago. You have helped to write this chronicle, and, now, as it draws to an end, you must look to the future — to what it holds for you. We hope success. The road to success is not to be run upon by seven-leagued boots. Step by step, little by little, bit by bit — that is the way to wealth, that is the way to wisdom, that is the way to glory.

— Charles Buxton

But go slowly as of yet we are still a little new at this game called life and there are many rules experience must teach us. If things are sometimes difficult to understand, look back to the past for in the past lies much of the future. Study the past if you would divine the future.

— Confucius

Through this Doverian we hope to keep a part of that past secure for you, that you may keep aglow the warmth that is your memory of us.

A crystal ball could unlock the mystery of the future, but a single word, or picture, can be a key to unlock stored remembrances to the past.

We assembled for assemblies.

Could I EVER

1. School spirit soared after the basketball squad took up where the undefeated football team left off, and interest increased towards wrestling? But wait — is that Bill Clayton buying a ticket? Could be.
2. The Seniors seated themselves front and center, and as the year grew shorter, felt themselves grow older?
3. We recorded our own voices and then protested: "But that can't be me!"

"School is Out", but some students stop long enough to get their tickets to the wrestling match with St. Andrews.

John Debolt, Pat Coffin, and Joan Flogl find the language lab a boon in their progress toward speaking proficiency.

"Do my ears deceive me? No, 'tis music!" And so we ate to the tune of the latest hit.

Forget HOW:

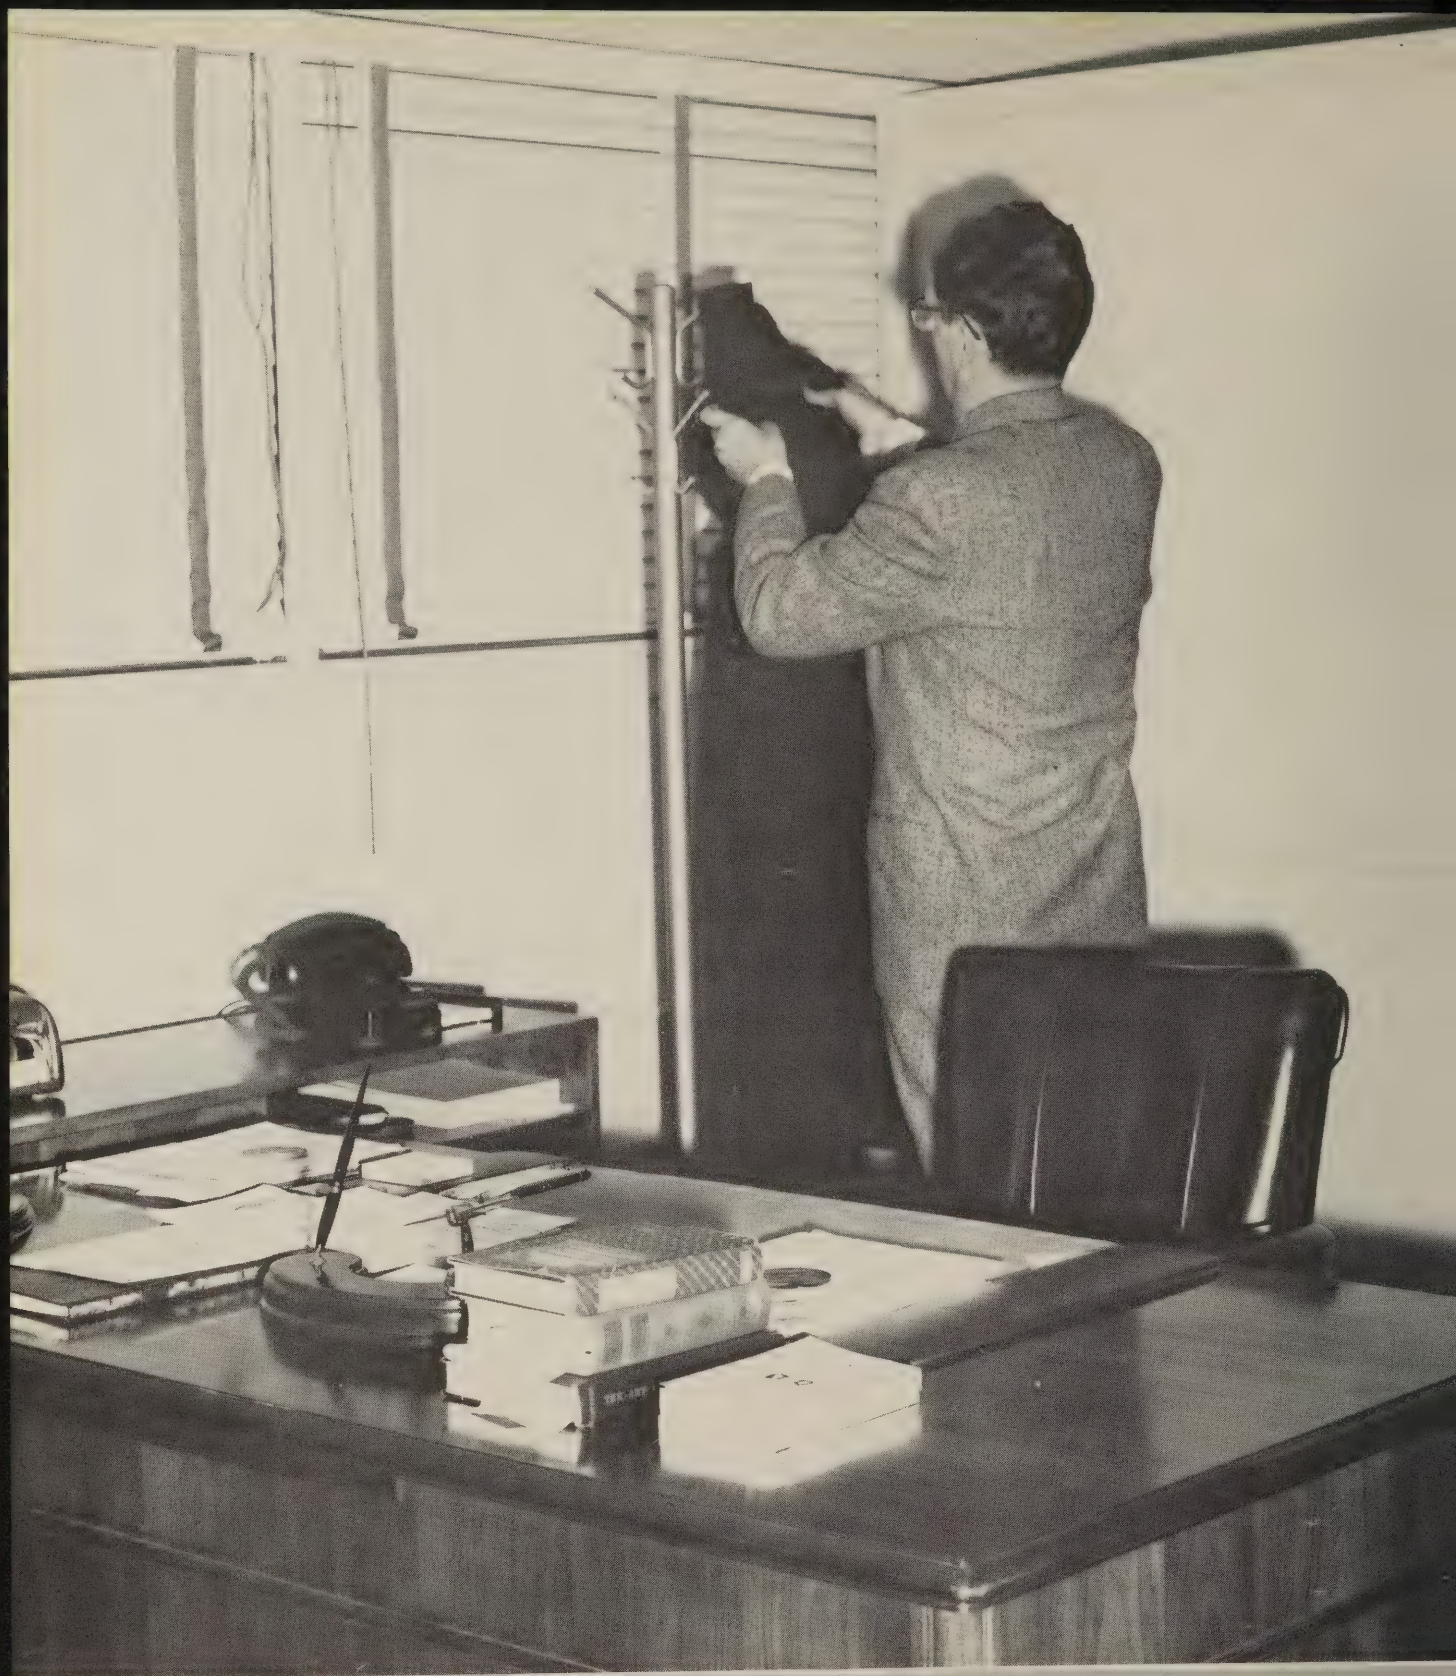

4. I always ended up last in the lunch line? Guess I should have asked for a pair of track shoes for Christmas.
5. The library was my second home when I had a research paper due?
6. I felt when I realized that graduation was not really so far away?

Animation is suspended, but his mind is active as he thinks of, perhaps, the future.

The library provides a haven of silence in contrast to the hum that seems to pervade the rest of the school.

An extra table was added to Mr. David Green's office to accommodate the plans for the proposed school buildings.

Even at the end of a tedious day — which had been mapped out on the schedule pad behind him — Mr. George Hess had

ALTRUISTIC

The goal of the Board of Education and Mr. David Green, Superintendent is to perfect, strengthen, and administer the educational facilities in the Dover Special School District. The remodeling of the science laboratories and other classrooms, especially the gymnasium at Dover High, presents evidence of the aims of this administration.

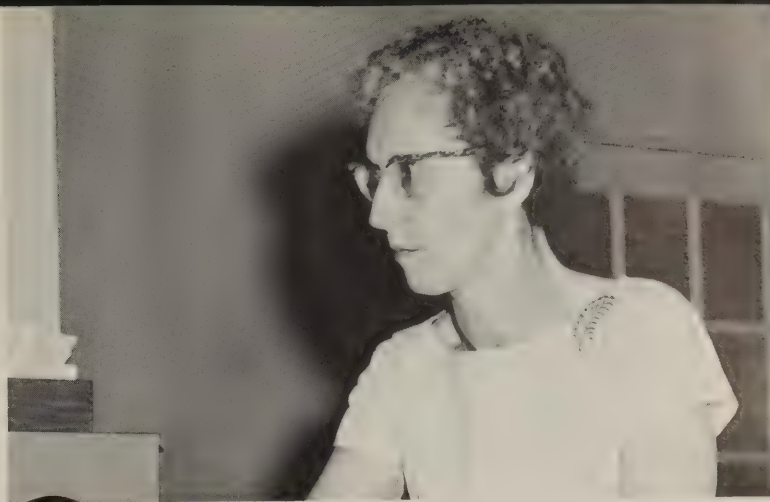

Our adjutant general, usually known as Mr. Sedule, tries to keep his sign's Motto in mind as he looks up from a portion of his daily paperwork.

a ready smile for our favorite photographer.

Mrs. Foard is the key figure of our main office acting as a liason between the administration and students.

ADMINISTRATION

However, their interest is not confined only to the construction of new buildings, but also to the construction of a new student interest, pride and sense of responsibility. Our principal, Mr. Joseph Sedule, is the mediator of the two groups and helps bring them together on a common ground.

"Because of Whom the Bell Tolls" might be an appropriate title to this study of the office clock.

Mr. Edgar A. Barrell — "Girls and boys, look up a minute . . ."

Mrs. Aline Ehinger — "Tomorrow you will hand in your note cards . . ."

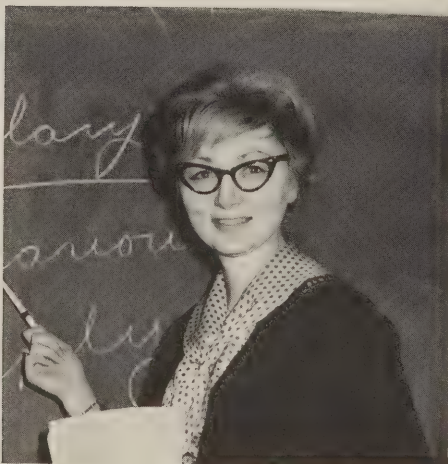

Miss Rosemarie Battaglia — "Now to begin on page 54 . . ."

LOQUACIOUS LINQUISTS

It is important to all of us to have a complete and understandable knowledge of our language. No matter what profession we choose we will find the proper use of English our greatest asset. Punctuation, spelling and grammar are but a few of the many facets of (our language) that have to be mastered. After dwelling on mechanics for almost two years we begin to delve into literature. First we study American authors and poets and later become acquainted with English literature.

A special course known as English Composition enables interested juniors and seniors to further their skill in compositional work. Newspaper layouts, poetry, and short story construction are but few of the phases studied by this group.

By the time we are seniors we have been well drilled in mechanics and literature and all of us have read at least one play by Shakespeare!

Mrs. Melvin Breite — "Limply is an adverb . . ."

sixth period English — "Write, write girls and boys you still have five minutes!!!"

Mr. Stanley W. Holcombe — "Diagraming is an important part of . . ."

Miss Ivy Hudson — "Is that what the dictionary said . . . ?"

LOQUATIOUS LINQUISTS

When one can travel a distance of three thousand miles in three hours, it becomes apparent that if he is to keep up with the fast moving world around him, he must strive to learn the languages of others. It seems nearly impossible to understate the importance of knowledge and understanding of other languages, and Dover High School has responded to the situation with the largest Spanish III class ever. In his third year, the student has finally mastered basic grammatical skills, and he is free to try his hand in verbal communication.

Mr. Pyne augments the regular class participation with Spanish novels and newspaper reports. Miss App, who teaches the French III students, offers them a program aimed at the study of vocabulary, pronunciation and a reading writing knowledge of the languages.

Miss Mary E. App - "Et je vous verrai ce soir . . ."

Mr. Theodore R. Pyne — "España es un país que . . ."

Mrs. George Everett — "La Prensa dice que . . ."

SEDULOUS SCIENTISTS

Test tubes bubbling with fusing compounds, fish scrutinized by watchful eyes, are two of the many activities carried on by science students in their new labs. Beginning biology and chemistry students have an extra incentive this year, to aid them in their pursuit of increasing their knowledge of science: the new labs. What student would not endeavor to learn all he could, surrounded by the new microscopes, replicas of the parts of the body, and the working areas specifically provided for lab experiments? Charles' Law, the structure of an atom, and the life functions of the amoeba are far easier to comprehend when teachers are aided by charts, diagrams and life-like models.

Mrs. Edward Hodgson — "This is my newest model . . ."

Mr. Joel H. Schwartz — "When the opposing forces of the negative ion . . ."

MR. JACK CAIRNS

Mr. Charles D. McGraw —
"As soon as the sugar converts into energy . . ."

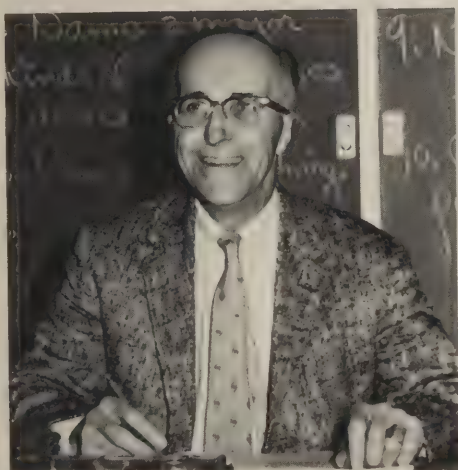

Mr. John Layton — "I know it is hard to understand but . . ."

Mrs. Eleanor Smith -- "Finally you have guessed — a cone!!"

Mr. John Parker — "And now for the little quiz . . ."

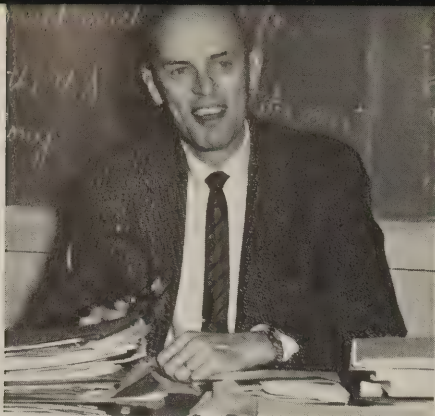

Mr. Charles E. Orr — "If the sum of the angles is more than  $180^\circ$  . . ."

METICULOUS MATHEMATICIANS

It would be a confused world indeed if there were no established methods for computing figures and calculating measurements.

Through the study of mathematics we learn these methods and are taught to determine problems which we will meet in our everyday lives. Although math seems as though it might be a stiff and exact course the study of great mathematicians and extra projects bring formulas and figures to life for us.

Mr. Eugene Tyler — "Then the Western territories adopted . . ."

Mr. Richard Taggart — "Sir, it was a bloody battle and all . . ."

Mr. Edward Guringo — "This is a globe and . . ."

Habile Historians

Mrs. Myrtle Cubbage — "The Pacific is a vast . . ."

Only through history do we become acquainted with the ages gone by and the men and women who motivated the ideals which led to the creation of our modern world.

The annals of history are stocked with multitudes of names, dates, places and occurrences. In order to facilitate the learning of these facts through interesting and lively discussions we are given a four year history program.

Civic's students learn the fundamentals of our government. A course in World History takes one from the stone age to the modern day America. As juniors everyone takes American History and becomes more informed about his own country's past. The final stage of the program known as P.O.D. is taught to seniors and emphasizes current affairs and International Relations.

Supplemented by films, newspapers, and debates, History is brought to life and its characters forever engrained upon us.

Miss Geneva Morris — "The Civil Rights are . . ."

Mr. William H. Streett — "The melody should be a little softer and . . ."

Mr. Harold E. Haines, Jr. — "It is tum ta tum tum not . . ."

Under the guidance of Mr. Haines, band director, and Mr. Streett, Glee Club director, those students who enjoy music are given the opportunity to participate in choral and band activities.

Thanks to Mr. Ferranto and his art students the halls of Dover High are always full of colorful displays. Architectural designs, and painting techniques are among the many phases of art studied. The classes began their year in September with a trip to New York art museums.

Through their physical education classes Mr. Andrus and Miss Duncan teach the students the fundamentals of indoor and outdoor games but most important they teach group participation and good sportsmanship.

Mr. Joseph G. Ferranto — "Do not press the chalk so hard just . . ."

FEATURING FINE ART AND FITNESS

Miss Ida C. Duncan — "I wonder if they . . .?"

Mr. Robert G. Andrus — "I need four volunteers . . ."

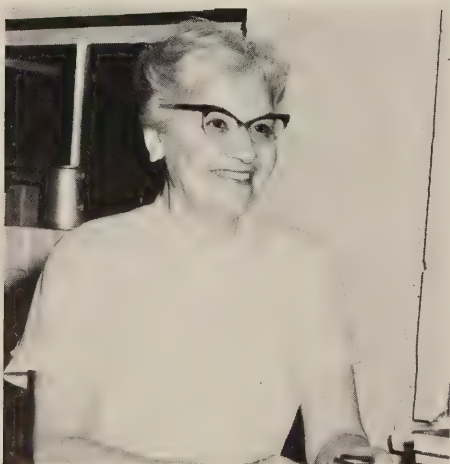

Miss Lillian T. Cottone — "If the two columns do not balance then . . ."

Mrs. Paul C. Hartman — "Since no time is left for the quiz today . . ."

Mrs. Helen Miller — "Time is up — count your words . . ."

Miss Verna H. Prusinowski — "Where is your monthly report . . .?"

VARIED VOCATIONS

Preparing for an occupation in the business world, the commercial students pursue courses such as typing, bookkeeping, and shorthand. After primary skills in these courses have been mastered the students go on to study them more thoroughly and become proficient in their abilities.

Business Law and Office Practice are two other subjects which give variety and interest to the commercial course. Business Law involves common everyday relationships, legal knowledge of which will prove invaluable to students in years to come. Office Practice offers first hand experience to those who plan to become secretaries, accountants or bookkeepers.

Striving to learn more modern, efficient methods of home making, the girls, taking courses in the Home Economics Department learn how to put these novel systems into practice. Learning to prepare meals and to design and make their own clothes are two of the activities in which they enjoy engaging.

Mrs. Florence Smith — "Using an orange and a pear as basic . . ."

The vocational department is well-equipped to instruct the student in his chosen field. The intricacies of the automobile are studied in auto mechanics. Carpentry and industrial arts students become better acquainted with their fields with the help of the shops which contain an abundant supply of working materials, and the afternoon work-training program.

Mr. David B. Bachman — "I know it was a little part but if we lose . . ."

Mr. William P. McDaniel — "If the nails are not the same size then . . ."

Mr. William P. Livingston — "Well, it should be drawn to scale . . ."

Painstaking Personnel

The importance of these helpful aides is shown throughout every day at Dover High School. The invaluable guidance rendered by the guidance counselors helps to mold the lives and interests that students will pursue. The nurse is always on duty to take care of minor and major aches and pains which frequently arise during a trying school day. The Driver Education program acquaints students with the fundamentals and experiences of driving, so that they may become cautious and safe drivers. Despite adverse conditions at times, the bus drivers loyally continue to transport students to and from school.

Mrs. Ake — "This is the fifth time you've been in here today . . ."

Mr. Carmen Leto — "That's right everybody move it's another beginner and . . ."

"Ah I ah think the milk machine is empty again . . ."

Cook, C. Kenschak, R. Hayes, B. DeBolt, D. Artley, (3rd) L. B. Moore, S. Icken, R. Reed, H. Fulmer, J. Adams, V. Ziebutski, D. Elkins, E. Cooper, (4th) J. Keller, H. Grampp, C. Griffith, S. Studley, T. Bryan, J. Miller, R. Edgll, (5th) J. DeBolt, M. Kroll, K. Workman, Miss Cottone, M. vanAgt, J. Sylvester, and C. Wolmsley.

The Student Council is our means of providing a laboratory experience in self-government. As in any other learning situation, the experiences are controlled and an emphasis is placed on the responsibilities inherent in any self-government situation. Qualifications: students are elected from homerooms and are required to maintain passing grades in order to remain a member of the council.

This year's football season terminated successfully as Queen Terry Andrews and her court reigned over the annual Football Dance. BACK ROW: J. Somerville, J. Caputo (Junior attendant), R. Syl-

This year our AFS student came from the land of wooden shoes and windmills. Maria Estelle Antonia vanAgt, known to us as Marijke, lives in Heeze, Holland with her eleven sisters, one brother, and parents.

Marijke was an active member of the International Relations Club, Great Books, and Student Council. She was a member of the AFS committee and put her hand to work on various other committees in the Senior class. Marijke played varsity hockey and excelled in other sports.

Marijke would like to be an airline stewardess or a physical therapist.

The American Field Service Committee, which sponsors the exchange student and initiates ingenious campaigns to raise money for his (or her) stay in ye olde towne of Dover, surrounds Marijke on the front steps. Working under the wing of the Student Council, members sold movie discount cards and participated in Nickel Wednesday to add legal tender to the coffers of the school. These industrious students are (1st ROW, l. to r.) C. Kanschak, L. B. Moore, S. Smith, S. Miller, (2nd ROW) L. Scotton, R. Holland, G. Jones, J. McClure, (3rd ROW) Mrs. Ehinger (sponsor), H. Grampp, M. van Agt, S. Studley, P. Coffin, J. Sylvester, and J. DeBolt.

At the annual Student Council-sponsored Football Dance dancers trip the light fantastic past isolated paper quarterbacks, linemen, and swaying crepe paper. Queen Terry descended her throne to mix with the courtiers.

Library
Building Blocks of Knowledge

As always the librarians of Dover High have helped the students through another year of work. What would we do without their unselfish help?

"A BOOK IS THE ONLY IMMORTALITY . . ."

R. Choate

Delving into the library of the world's immortal authors, the great book's club experienced many new ideas and met some starkly new concepts.

THE ESTUTE OFFICERS OF GREAT BOOKS, Lou's Scotton, Marlene Halpern, and Sandra Robinson (Pres.), browse through the year's assignment.

Elected to hold the offices were Carl Jones — Pres., Pat Coffin — Sec-Treasurer, "Mike" Walmsley — Vice-Pres. Here they effect a concentrated study on the program of the Induction ceremony.

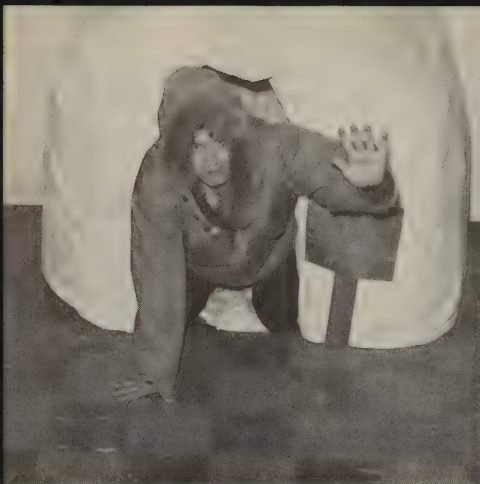

The four Commencement speakers step from the ranks of the Honor Society to be recognized: Carl Jones, Cecelia Walmsley, John McClure and Robert Mader.

"SMILE WHEN YOU SAY DRAMA
CLUB, PARTNER!!"

The aims of the Drama Club are to foster interest in the Dramatic arts and to promote the practicing of the same. Veteran and new members became familiar with all the intricacies of theater work, both on stage and off, earning points for their Thespian credit.

The Club put on three productions: "Grow Up" for the thanksgiving assembly; "Icebound", for the public; and "Submerged" for the University of Delaware Drama Festival, during which they simulated a submerged submarine on stage.

This year the Club welcomed two new sponsors, Mr. Orr and Miss Battaglia.

The officers of the Drama Club, C. Jones (Pres.), E. Schmalhoffer (V.P.), J. Fogl (Recording Sect.), M. McCall (Corres. Sect), and S. Robinson (Tres.), put forth their best for the camera.

A year of outstanding work reaped its rewards when these acting buffs earned enough points to join the ranks of National Thespians.

Keeping a protective eye on the stage below, Mr. Orr takes his battle station at the lighting board.

The trumpet section was made up of: (ROW 1) H. Roper, R. Cast, J. Pancoast, K. Mitchell. (ROW 2) W. Wagner, and K. Toll.

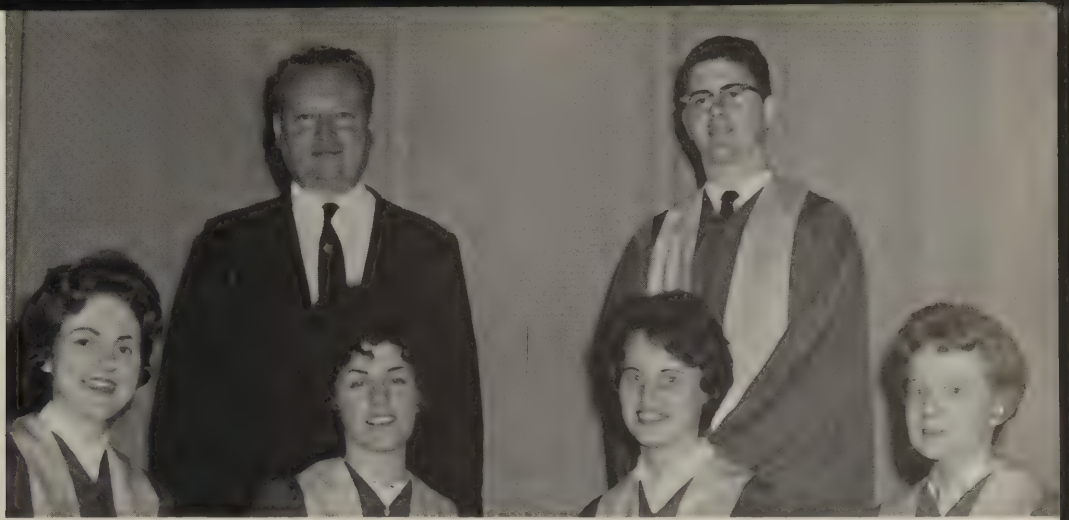

The color guard consisted of M. Deuble, P. Dabson, J. Flogl, D. Lursmen and S. Hynson.

Under the capable direction of Mr. William Streett, the Glee Club performed for the student body throughout the year, presenting new and varied musical selections. An oriental touch was added at Christmas with the arrangement "Christmas Bells" by McCormick. Sandra Studley, Joan Kennett, Donna Gagen, and Keith Kreisher each sang "Silent Night" in different languages.

Travel was the theme of the Spring Concert. The chorus presented sequences of "The Happy Wanderer." Sandra Studley, Marcia Maltz, and Helen Grampp were soloists on the spring program.

The officers for the year were Helen Grampp, President; Keith Kreisher, Vice-President; Donna Gagen, Secretary-Treasurer; Judy Ergenzinger, Librarian; Joyce Short, Robe Chairman.

STOP THE PRESSES!!

Working hard this year, the Ecolian Staff put out a newspaper that all the kids wanted to buy. The tempo was rapid in the Journalism Club room, also. The purpose of this club is to foster an interest in the journalism field among high school students. Most of the activities deal with the analysis and planning of newspapers and magazines; there is also instruction on techniques of advertising. Various "field trips" — to visit large newspaper plants, to interview interesting people, and so on — add to the offerings of the activity.

Ingenuity, perspiration, and two girls, Rosemary Clark and Pat Coffin, held the Radio Staff together. Here they strike a familiar just-before-airtime pose. Their mentor, Mr. Holcombe, kept a watchful eye on proceedings.

"KNOWLEDGE OF THE WORLD IS DEARLY BOUGHT . . ."

The world and its happenings gave them something explosive to study and learn about this year. Widely-read members were: (1st ROW) J. Gagen, M. van Agt, B. Matthews, M. Halpern. (2nd ROW) S. McCoy, D. Gagen, S. Gruwell, J. Reynolds. (3rd ROW) T. Bryan,

Cheering our boys on to victory this year were (left) Lilly Belle Moore, (Capt.); Linda Burnerger, Sandy Smith, Sharon Lisi, Sandy Miller,

THEY GAVE THEIR ALL!

"We're from Dover High School and no one could be prouder"! This sums up how the peppy cheerleading squad felt as they cheered their Football and Basketball teams on to victory. The teams were at a peak and the cheerleaders were behind them all the way. The squad was led by Lilly Belle Moore, captain and Nancy Pearson, Co-Cap.

Behind the scenes in a frantic effort to be prepared we see the Varsity at work.

With the sponsor, Miss Judy Lee, they tried to raise the spirit of their fellow students by putting up posters, having car parades, holding blue-white days, and last but not least, holding the traditional Snake Dance. Not only were they proud of Dover High, Dover High was proud of them!

The J-V squad — (front) P. Cook, A. Cullin, C. Moore, P. Curl, B. Tawes, N. Somerville, and K. Berglund — put their hearts and their lungs into their work for their teams.

Talk About Variety!

Mr. Orr HELP all those people, real people!!!

Ah Comon don't be afraid!

"T's 'cause we love you true . . ."

A tense scene from "Icebound."

"In our program today . . ."

"And just then when he hit that last curve doing eighty . . ."

THE PRODUCTION END . . .

This is the Doverian. This is a book that has taken many months to organize. We have , , and  (arranged pictures). Bill Clayton  was in charge of pinching pennies and Pat Coffin  was our editor-in-chief. We of the Doverian would like to take this opportunity to thank our leader , Mr. Tyler, for a wonderful yearbook and a really unforgettable experience.

The production staff busily organizes copy which editor, Pat Coffin, and her two assistants, Cecelia Walmsley (left) and Joan Fogl, then revise and package for publication.

Sponsor, Myrtle Cabbage, helps keep an eye on the till.

Pictures of their cohorts and contemporaries occupied these Seniors in charge of classes: Carl Jones, Marcia Maltz, and Jean Reynolds.

Layouts confounded and confused some, but John DeBolt and Joan Flogl found that practice made work on the faculty section perfect.

Girls' sports editor, Bev Matthews, and her assistants, Sandy Smith and Beth Schmalhoffer, brandish pencils and ideas.

Cecelia Walmsley and Bill Clayton find that sometimes two heads are not better than one as discussion arises over the method to be used in presenting Dover High's activities. Bob Mader wisely refrains from taking a side.

Artists Ann Christenson, Sandy Robinson, and Gayle Sanders sketch verbal ideas submitted to them from the other not-so-artistically inclined members of the staff.

Jim Somerville out-runs the Caesar Rodney defense to score. Somerville, the Senator's All-state/All-America quarterback, lead the State in scoring with 127 points.

FOOTBALL RESULTS

(l. to r.) Head Coach Bob Andrus, (ass'ts) Ed Guringo, and Carmen Leto turned out Dover's best football team. They also lead the Gold All-Star team to their first win over the Blues.

SENATORS GO UNDEFEATED

Chet Carroll breaks into the clear against Caesar Rodney after a key block by Bob Sylvester. Carroll was the Senator's outstanding back; Sylvester was the prominent lineman. Jim Somerville was the player of the year.

The Senator defense dominated over all opposition as witnessed here against Havre De Grace.

"Here comes that 24 again!" This was the familiar number in the eyes of all Dover opponents. Jim Somerville turns the corner, after a key block from Chet Carroll to score 6 more points against Smyrna.

A TRIBUTE TO COACH BOB ANDRUS IN 1961

Coach Andrus is lifted into the air by his undefeated senator football squad. In the past three years, Coach Andrus has had a 20 win, 3 loss 2 tie record.

'62 SENATORS BEST IN DOVER HISTORY

Rod Thompson jumps high over Seaford's John Temple in the opening tap-off before an over-flow crowd at Seaford. Seaford went on to hand the Senators their only loss of the season.

As head coach Jim Cluck leaves Dover High, he leaves behind him the best record ever set by a coach in basketball at Dover and possibly in Delaware. In 1962 his basketeers put before the state's schools the best record of any this season. The Senators posted an impressive record of 17 wins and 1 loss. The only loss was delivered by a scrappy Seaford five.

Such standouts as Bob Reed (captain), Rod Thompson, Bob Sylvester, and Dave Jamison sparked the Senator morale. All four made various teams in the State. Larry Caniford and Jim Calhoun, two regular starters, helped considerably.

The J-V, under coach Larry Gingsburg, followed the varsity's record of 17-1, losing to Seaford, also. Dick Wynder, Louie Miller, Mike Czyajyk, Charlie Klemstine, and Dick Wilson are expected to fill the shoes of the graduating, all-Senior squad.

Dover's all-around star, Bob Sylvester, is fouled by Seaford's 22 on a fast break.

SENATORS MYTHICAL STATE CHAMPS

The starting Dover Basketball team: (KNEELING, L. to R.) Rod Thompson, Larry Caniford, Bob Reed (Capt.); (STANDING) Jim Calhoun and Bob Sylvester lead the Senators to a impressive 17 wins and 1 loss record.

Other Senator Stalwarts:

Dave Jamison    Jim Somerville

Ken Moore    Bill Godwin

John Debolt    Ron Zeigenbein

Ed Dennis

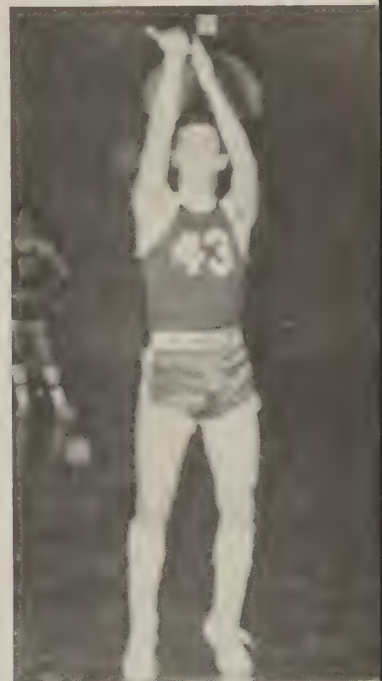

As two Wm. Henry players return to the floor, Dover players (l to r) Jim Calhoun, Bob Reed, Rod Thompson, Wm. Henry's 13, Dave Jamison, and Larry Caniford wait for the game to proceed.

Larry Caniford shoots a foul shot, which is a specialty for him.

Coach Jim Cluck is Dover's winningest coach ever. He has piloted Dover to 32 wins out of 36 games just in the last two years.

The Senators go through their pre-game warm-up before beating Wm. Henry.

J.V. HAS 17-1 WINNING SEASON

Dover's J.V. basketball team scrambles for the ball after the tap-off against Seaford. Senator players are (l to r) Lewie Miller, (Seaford player), Charlie Klemstine, Mike Czyczuk (3), and Dickie Wynder.

The J.V.'s Dick Wilson takes a foul shot as a Seaford player looks on.

FACULTY VS. LETTERMEN

Does anyone recognize the basketballer at the foul line on the left? Sho' nuff, that's our football coach, Robert Andrus, ready to "do like the Navy does — sink it!" The Letterman's club had challenged the Faculty All-Stars and found they had bitten off a mite more than they could chew. Late in the first quarter Bill Wagner tried to bolster his team's score, but the faculty — and Carmen Leto — were confident enough to view the threat without alarm.

The rafters rang with cheers both loud and strong for the rival teams. Those for the Lettermen were lead by candidates for the club who had to submit to this devious initiation. Martin Keiman, Don Palmer and Lance Hardy were enthusiastic yet somehow lacked the polish displayed by the Senator Varsity Cheering squad.

Victorious faculty. (FRONT) S. Holcombe, R. Andrus (BACK) C. Leto, C. Orr, E. Guringo, L. Ginsburg, C. McGraw, C. Davis.

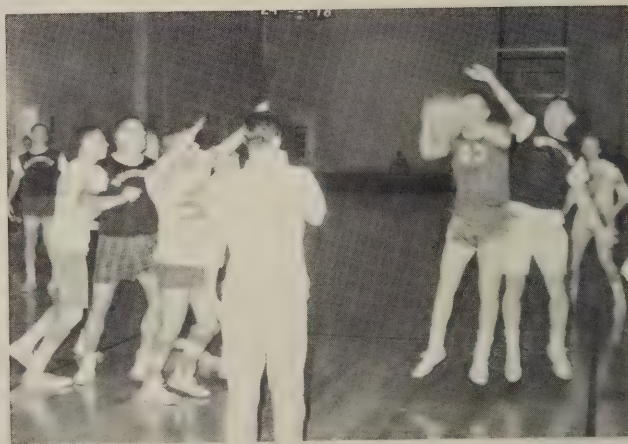

The Lettermen Club this year was involved in a number of activities, fairing well in each. First, of course, was their annual game with the faculty. The old boys again proved too much for the young blood as they won in a very close and exciting game. This game was played in the newly remodeled gym and drew an almost capacity crowd.

The Lettermen also helped to raise money for a memorial fund in memory of a fellow Letterman, Fred Hufnal.

Jim Somerville was club president; Bob Sylvester was vice-president; Alton Smith served as secretary; and Chet Carroll handled the financial part of the club as treasurer.

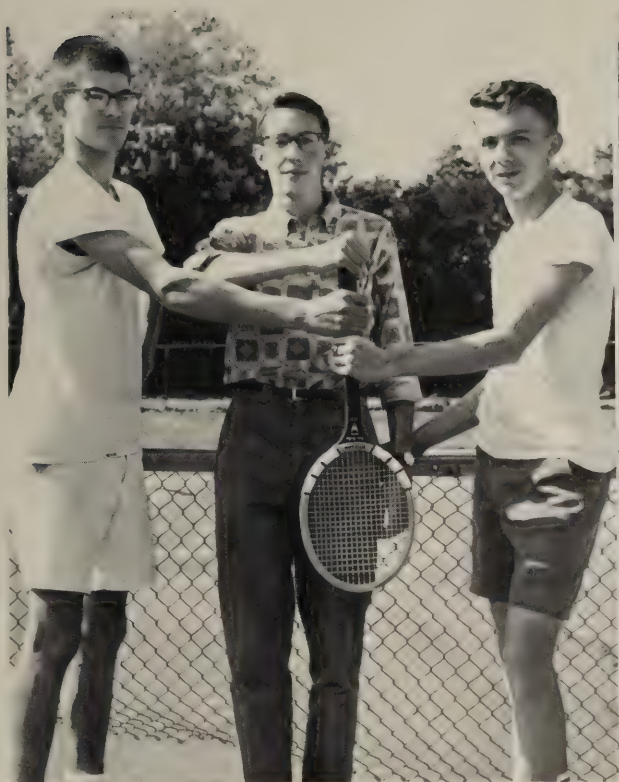

Lettermen clown before their game with the faculty. The boys lost to the men for the third time in as many years. Jim Somerville, Lettermen coach, looks on.

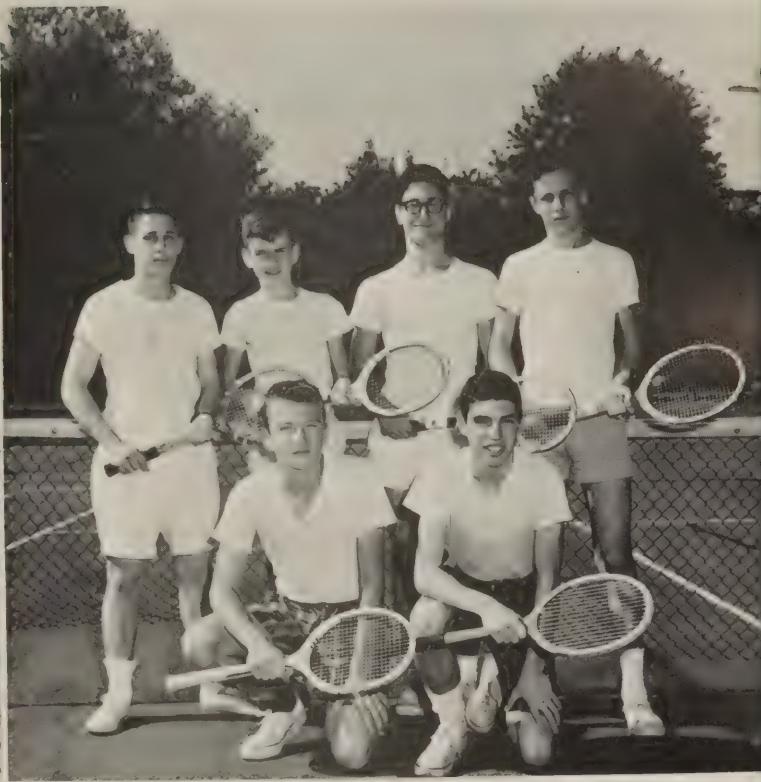

Ed Guringo pulls down a rebound for the faculty during the exciting action. Bob Sylvester stands ready with the whistle. Bob refereed with Bob Reed.

The tennis doubles players: (KNEELING, l. to r.) T. Newell, C. Klemstine, (STANDING) M. Keimon, S. Norton, M. Kroll, G. Schmalhofer.

GOLFERS PRODUCE WINNING SEASON

Dover's winning golf team will have all but two players return next year, and should be impressive. The players (l. to r.) D. Fulmer, R. Wilson, L. Christenson, D. Palmer, G. Sevast. (absent) N. Brown, T. Pollak. Coach: W. Livingston.

(FRONT) S. Morton, T. Kimmel, P. Carret, M. Little, R. Brown, N. Mano, W. Brown, J. Courtney, D. Queen. (MIDDLE) T. Walters(mgr.), P. Guessford, M. Wagner, R. Short, J. Lecompte, G. Johnson, R. Holland, R. Mader, M. Kreisher, K. Workman, L. Jarman, J. Abbott, J. Prentis(mgr.). (BACK) G. West, B. Remondi, G. Butler, M. Robinson, M. Durkin, W. Godwin(capt.), C. Carroll, J. Debolt, E. Topping, R. Grimm, F. Tarburton, W. Wagner, R. Leisey, G. Wyatt(mgr.). (Absent) K. Moore, D. Artley, R. Brown.

The Senators' track squad had troubles in duel and tri meets, but placed high in the larger meets. The thinclads took thirds in the Dover Relays, Diamond State Conference Meet, Seaford Invitational, and most important the State Meet.

Standouts on the squad were captain Bill Godwin in the high hurdles and 440; Ken Moore, broad jump and hurdles; Chet Carroll and Don Artley in the sprints; and John Debolt and Ben Remondi in the field events.

Coach Hackett and assistant coach Ginsburg have a young squad, which has had a lot of experience, coming back next year. This team should produce some fine results.

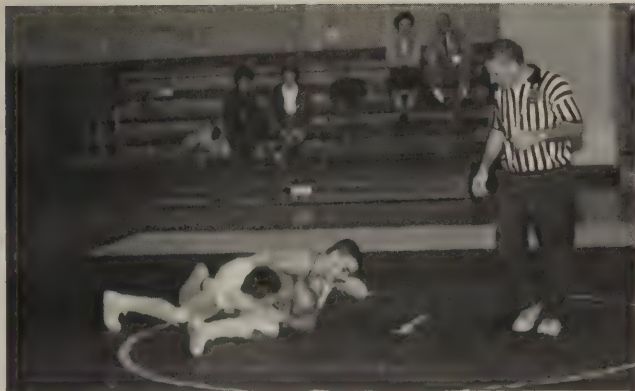

l to r Bill Godwin, Chet Carroll, Dick Brown, and Gordon Johnson practice baton passing in preparation for the coming relays.

GRAPPLERS HAVE 1st WINNING SEASON

Alton Smith (on top) tries to score on his C.R. opponent. Alton was one of Dover's top wrestlers. He took a third in the Diamond State Conference Meet.

SENATORS EXTENDED STREAK

After forming the state's longest winning streak at 29 wins straight, the Senators were stopped by Wicomico. The Dover sackers had a very impressive record of 14 wins and 1 loss. In the process they won the Diamond State Conference Championship by going undefeated in 12 games. The Dover nine showed their stuff where it counts by beating a strong Salesianum team 2 to 1 and thrashing Mt. Pleasant 9 to 2.

The Senators will be hard hit by graduation this year as 11 players will leave Dover High. However, if all stands as in the past, a good team will be rebuilt.

Much credit must be given to Coach Andrus as he has turned out the best baseball teams ever produced at Dover. He had fine help from his assistant, Coach Leto.

Bob Reed's almost flawless pitching and Jim Somerville's valuable fielding combined with acrobatic baserunning helped the capital winning season. The outfield of Jim Ake, Jim Calhoun, and Lance Hardy provided a strong outer defence. Hardy is the only starter returning. Ed Martin, Nolan Ray, and Larry Caniford supplied the rest of an omnipotent infield.

(KNEELING) D. Dickenson, M. Geiger, J. Shaw, E. Calhoun, L. Hardy, V. Hutchins, J. Sylvester, N. Ray, J. Ake, (STANDING) R. Andrus (head coach), C. Ergenzinger, R. Reed, J. Calhoun, L. Caniford, R. Thompson, R. Zeigenbein, E. Martin, R. Sylvester (mgr. coach), J. Somerville, C. Leto (ass't coach).

BACK ROW: Coach Duncan, M. Walmsley, H. Grampp, A. Puchalsky, K. Kent, B. Schmalhofer, J. Carey, W. Brady, O. Proko, L. Leisey, B. Shapiro, FRONT ROW: J. McGinnis, J. Sucko, D. Green, L. Smith,

A. Harper, J. Lovisone, B. Reed, N. Carey, S. Hurley, KNEELING: B. J. Pleasanton and Barbara Matthews (co-captains).

Spring is here and with spring comes softball. Approximately thirty-three girls went out for the softball team; however, only twenty made the final grade. Out of this twenty there were six Freshman girls who will provide an excellent foundation in the coming years.

Although there were only four Seniors on the team, Helen Grampp, Barbara Matthews, Mike Walmsley, and B. J. Pleasanton, they made their presence very evident by hard hitting, fielding, and by demonstrating their experience.

This year's captains were Barbara Matthews and B. J. Pleasanton, both of whom did a good job in filling this capacity.

Pitchers, L. Leisey, J. Carey, and L. Smith pose at a softball practice.

A force out at 1st base, retires the team.

Varsity Team Wins THREE GAMES OUT OF FOUR!

HILDA HOCKEY

Our A.F.S. student.

The Dover Varsity Hockey team came through their 1961 season undefeated. In doing this, they displayed fine sportsmanship and teamwork. Co-captains, B. J. Pleasanton and Sandy Hynson combined their experience to lead the team to victory with the aid of Coach Cleaves.

The team scheduled five games, four of which were played. The team won three and tied one.

The Dover Junior Varsity team equaled the fine record of the Varsity squad. The co-captains, Becky Reed and Arlene Puchalsky, did an excellent job. Coach Duncan adding her skill and knowledge to the team, brought it through with three wins and one tie.

Dover goal raises team cheer.

The fourteen game schedule of the Girls' Varsity basketball team presented the largest season in several years. Although the five win and nine loss record was only a fair record, the girls enjoyed the game and developed new and useful basketball skills. During the season, Carol Sinclair proved that she could play either forward or guard effectively. Also, Barbara Matthews proved her skill in making baskets by compiling one hundred and sixty-four points for the season.

The Junior Varsity basketball team, although all of its members were fairly young, compiled a good record and learned techniques that will be helpful on next year's team.

Prisella Kulhanek, a sophomore, was high scorer for the season and gave much encouragement to the other members of the team. She, along with the others, learned new in basketball and was introduced to the competition and the pressures present in a close game.

BETTY BASKET

Players await a throw-in.

Plenty of action on the court.

A successful jump-ball for Dover.

Dear Dover High School Students,

With this final letter the complex puzzle which we found the Doverian to be will be completed. From a distance this puzzle seems to present a solid picture of the '61-'62 school year at Dover High. Yet when you study it more closely you will notice the details of that picture — the people, the heart-rending, heart-warming times they shared, and the honors they brought their school.

It is appropriate that the little character who punctuates so many of our pages should be named Janus, for we — the Doverian staff — like to think of him as one of us, both looking back over a special Senior year and hesitatingly ahead for an exciting future. To arrive at that future some will take the high road and some will take the low road, but it is our hope that this yearbook will bring us all back together again for a fond reunion with memories.

To our adviser, Mr. Eugene Tyler, go my thanks for the many enlightening suggestions and gentle criticisms. I would also like to express my gratitude to Mr. A. Ken Pfister, whose patience was often tried yet always true; to Mr. Ross Young for our Senior portraits; to our generous business patrons and friends; and to my editorial crew pictured on the Doverian page with whom I weathered the production crises and emotional storms that accompany the birth of a yearbook.
